TEXAS' GAS CHAMBERS OF HORROR & HEARTSTICKS OF PAIN

PLEASE BE AWARE THAT THE FOLLOWING SUBJECT MATTER IS DISTURBING, BUT, AS A NO KILL SANCTUARY, N.A.B.S. WANTS YOU TO BE INFORMED SO YOU CAN HELP US HELP MORE PETS FACING THIS INHUMANE FATE THROUGH NO FAULT OF THEIR OWN.

N.A.B.S. WILL NEED SPONSORS IF WE ARE TO PULL MORE DOGS FROM THE FOLLOWING CITIES AND COUNTIES THAT USE THESE INHUMANE EUTHANASIA METHODS. WILL YOU PLEASE MAKE A COMMITMENT TO SPONSOR SO WE CAN GO RESCUE MORE FROM FACING THIS INHUMANE FATE?? WE CAN NOT RESCUE WITHOUT A SPONSORSHIP FOR THEM.

WILL YOU HELP US SO WE CAN HELP THEM?

The indisputable facts about gas chambers and heartstick euthanasia are:

Most experts will agree that the most important factor in euthanizing shelter animals is “humaneness of the method.” Humane euthanasia will consist of “painless unconsciousness, followed by respiratory, and then cardiac arrest.” This does NOT apply to Carbon Monoxide Gas. Its many limitations are that it is less humane, less practical, considerably slower and is the more expensive form of euthanasia.

In carbon monoxide gas euthanasia, a properly equipped and manufactured chamber is to be used. Chambers constructed with plywood or cinder block and already in existence can be used if in good repair. The chamber should be located in a well-ventilated area, preferably outdoors. It should be well lit and have view ports that are shatterproof so that staff have direct observation of the animals. All fans, lights or other equipment inside must be explosion-proof. The sound of the gas entering the chamber may cause fear in some animals, especially cats. Animals may become restless or aggressive, further stressing other animals.

The gas does NOT immediately render the animals unconscious. Some animals may go through a period of resistance and dogs may vocalize or howl while becoming rigid. Animals are to be left in the chamber for and exposed to the gas for a minimum of 30 minutes to ensure death. Death must be verified for each animal prior to disposal (which does not always happen).

Together, we can help these helpless, sad dogs going to their death through no fault of their own.

N.A.B.S. NEEDS A COMMITMENT FROM YOU TODAY SO WE CAN CONTINUE TO SAVE RESCUES AND FIND LOVING HOMES FOR THEM. YOU CAN HELP BY BECOMING A SPONSOR, A MONTHLY CONTRIBUTOR, FOSTER, OR A VOLUNTEER.

PLEASE GO BACK AND LOOK AT ALL OUR ADOPTIONS THIS MONTH AND ALL THOSE RESCUES BEING SAVED...JOIN OUR TEAM AND LET YOUR HEART BURST FULL OF PRIDE FOR HELPING SAVE SOME OF GOD'S CREATURES.
